(2) Moderators for moderating question papers shall be appointed by the Examining Body from persons not concerned in any way with the Examining Body or with any affiliated college of Delhi. Translators shall be appointed by the Examining Body from amongst persons who are well versed both in Ayurvedic/Unani and Modern Systems of medicine.

(3) It will be the duty of the Examining Body—

- (a) to order examination in conformity with these regulations and to recommend dates of holding them;
- (b) to moderate the results and to request the Delhi Administration for the publication of the results;
- (c) to deal with all the complaints relating to the question paper(s) set for the examination; provided that no complaint shall be entertained unless the same is endorsed by the Head of the Institution and is received in the office of the Examining Body within three days of the date of release of the question paper; and

- (d) to consider all the matters arising out of the conduct of the Examination and to make recommendations where necessary concerning matters not prescribed in these regulations.

(4) Three months before the commencement of an Examination the Secretary may send to all the members of the Examining Body and to the Head of all recognised Institutions, a circular letter requesting them to forward within a specified time the names of persons whom they consider suitable for appointment as examiners for the various examinations. Every such recommendation shall be accompanied by a brief statement of the special qualifications of the persons recommended with their address.

(5) The Examining Body shall consider these recommendations and also any application of a candidate for examinership that may be received and select suitable persons for appointment as examiners and their names shall be kept strictly confidential. The Secretary shall then send out a circular letter to each of the persons selected requesting him to intimate within a specified time if he is agreeable to act as examiner. If the person is agreeable, the Secretary shall send him an appointment letter together with a copy of the Regulations for the guidance of the examiner, a copy of the Syllabus of the subject for which he is appointed as examiner and any special instructions that may be necessary. If any such person fails to reply or intimates his inability to act as an examiner and also if there be any casual vacancy, the Chairman shall appoint a suitable person to be examiner in his place.

27. Conduct of examinations.—(1) The Examining Body shall hold the examinations twice a year in the months of January and July or in such other months as may be fixed by them. The Examining Body may cancel or postpone a date fixed by them.

(2) The time of the Examination shall be 8-30 A.M. to 11-30 A.M. and 2-00 P.M. to 5-00 P.M.

(3) Candidates whose application forms are not received by 30th September and 31st March for such examinations to be held in January and July respectively shall have to pay Rs. 5/- late fee in addition to the prescribed fee. Last date for receipt of applications with aforesaid late fee shall be 15th October and 15th April respectively.

(4) A person deputed by the Examining Body for the purpose shall be the Superintendent for the conduct of each written examination. He shall be assisted by invigilators appointed by the Secretary, who shall act according to the instructions and directions of the Superintendent. The number of invigilators so appointed shall be subject to a maximum of 5 per cent of the number of candidates.

28. Powers and duties of Superintendents.—(1) The Superintendent will see that the orders of the Examination hall open half an hour before the time specified for the distribution of the question paper on the 1st day and quarter of an hour before on subsequent days.

(2) The Superintendent will be supplied by the Secretary before the commencement of the examination, with the list showing the names of candidates, who will appear at his centre of examination and the optional subjects taken up by them and a statement showing the number of candidate appearing in each subject of examination.

(3) The Superintendent shall not admit any candidate whose name is not shown in the list or allow any candidate to take an optional subject other than that shown against his name, provided that in doubtful cases the Superintendent may allow a candidate to take the paper and immediately refer the matter to the Secretary. He may require any candidate to show his roll number and enrolment card.

(4) The Superintendent shall open the question paper (set for the examination) despatched by the Secretary in a sealed cover in the presence of at least one invigilator. The Superintendent and the invigilator (or invigilators) shall certify that the sealed cover was in proper condition and that it was opened in the Examination Hall at the proper time. The certificate shall be forwarded to the Secretary on the same day.

(5) Before the commencement of the examination, the Superintendent shall see that the seating arrangement of candidates is satisfactory and that they are seated well apart from each other to prevent collusion.

(6) The superintendent shall also see that roll number of each candidate is specified on the table provided to him so that the candidate may readily find out his place. After the end of the examination, a plan of the examination room showing the position of each candidate relative to others, shall be sent to the Secretary on each examination day.

(7) The superintendent shall see that a second answer book is not given out to a candidate until the first has been completed, and that the two books are at once stitched together.

(8) The Superintendent shall remain in the examination Hall during the time allotted for each paper; he shall on no account speak or permit any one to speak to a candidate on any subject pertaining to the question paper during the hours of examination except for the purpose of correcting misprint or other errors calculated to mislead the candidates. The superintendent shall, without loss of time, draw the attention of the Secretary to any misprint, error or any ambiguity which may come to his notice for the information of the examiner.

(9) As soon as the time allotted for answering the question paper has expired, the answer books shall be carefully collected and arranged in numerical order, securely packed and sealed and despatched on the same day by the superintendent direct to the Secretary reporting names of the absentees with necessary details as to the No. etc. of the answer-books so despatched.

(10) The superintendent shall also keep with the answer-books of the candidates two copies of the question paper.

(11) The superintendent shall make arrangement, as economically as possible consistent with efficiency in all matters involving expenditure of money.

(12) The superintendent shall see that no candidate notes answers (or anything else) on the question paper.

(13) The superintendent shall see that no candidate is permitted to leave the examination hall without being accompanied by a trustworthy escort to prevent his communication with outsiders and that he does not use his absence from the hall for any purpose other than that for which he had taken leave. The superintendent may fix a time, if necessary, within which the candidate must return to his seat.

(14) Ordinarily one invigilator shall be appointed for every 20 candidates but the superintendent will have the option to appear as an additional invigilator to meet any emergency requirements after getting previous approval of the Secretary.

(15) The superintendent shall have the power to call upon any candidate appearing at an examination to give his specimen signature for the purpose of identification.

(16) The superintendent shall also exercise powers conferred on him under regulation 37.

29. Functions of Invigilators.—(1) Every invigilator shall report himself on duty to the Superintendent half an hour before the commencement of the examination on the first day and fifteen minutes before the subsequent days.

(2) Every invigilator shall remain in the examination hall during the time allotted for each question paper and shall not leave the hall without the permission of the Superintendent.

(3) The invigilators are expected to help the Superintendent in the distribution of question papers and answer-books, etc. to the candidates and in collecting the answer-books from the candidates at the close of the examination. They shall also help the Superintendent in arranging the answer-books for despatch.

(4) The invigilators will help the Superintendent in preparing a list of the candidates present at the examination and in verifying that their identity by comparing their signatures with those on the card of admission.

(5) During the course of examination the invigilators shall move about the place and shall not engage themselves in studying or conversation.

(6) If any candidate is found to resort to unfair means at the examination or to create disturbance or to act in any manner so as to cause inconvenience to the other candidates, the invigilator shall at once report the matter to the Superintendent.

(7) The invigilators shall also bring to the notice of the Superintendent any complaints or other difficulties pointed out by any candidate regarding the question paper set for the examination.

(8) The invigilators shall help the Superintendent in such other matter connected with the conduct of the examination as may be required of them.

(9) In case an invigilator is unable to be present at the examination hall on any day on account of unavoidable circumstances, he shall give at least 24 hours' notice to the Superintendent.

(10) Invigilators shall work under the directions of the Superintendent and shall bring to his notice without loss of time any violation of rules detected by them.

30. Issue of Admission Cards.—(1) The Secretary shall after satisfying himself that a candidate has complied with all the requirements for admission to an examination of the Examining Body, furnish the candidates with a card of admission on presentation of which to the Superintendent of the examination concerned, the candidate shall be permitted to sit for the examination.

(2) Every card of admission shall be sent to the Principal of the College concerned who will give it to the candidate after the latter has put his signatures thereon.

(3) The Secretary if satisfied that a candidate's admission card has been lost or destroyed, may grant a duplicate card on payment of the prescribed fee.

31. Oral and Practical Examinations.—(1) The Secretary shall draw up a programme for the oral and practical examination stating in it the dates, hours and places for examination and the Roll Numbers of the candidates fixed for each day and obtain the approval of the Chairman. A copy of the programme shall also be sent to the examiner concerned.

(2) The oral and practical examination shall ordinarily be held in one or more of the affiliated institutions and the Secretary shall intimate to the Head of such institutions about the programme with the request to render facilities to the examiners for carrying out their examinations.

(3) Models, diagrams, samples of herbs and drugs, instruments and appliances required for the oral and practical examinations are expected to be provided by the institutions where the examinations are held. Chemicals and others ingredients which shall be used in the Examination shall be supplied by the Examining Body either through the Heads of the institutions where the oral and practical examinations are held or otherwise, as may be necessary or convenient. The Secretary shall in consultation with the authorities of the institutions, see that the arrangements for these are made timely and properly.

32. Percentage of marks and declaration of results.—(1) To pass an examination of the degree or condensed course, a candidate shall have to obtain 40% of the total marks in theory and 50% of the total marks in practicals separately: Provided that to pass the preliminary examination of the degree course a candidate shall have to obtain 33% marks in written as well as in practical in Physics, Chemistry, Botany and Zoology: Provided further that ten percent marks of the marks obtained in the terminal examination shall be added to the marks of the annual examination.

(2) The results thus tabulated and verified shall be placed before the Examining Body for approval and orders for publication. Before setting the results the examining Body may allow grace marks, (a) up to 10% in the written paper if they consider that any question was ambiguous or vague or too difficult for the standard or outside the syllabus; and (b) up to an aggregate of five whether in one subject or part thereof or spread over a number of subjects or parts thereof where required if a candidate fails to get through or secure compartment by five or less marks.

(3) A candidate who secures 75% marks or more in any subject shall be declared to have passed with distinction in that subject. If he secures 60% marks or more in aggregate in any examination, he shall be declared to have passed the examination in the First Division, and of 45% marks or more then in Second Division. The remaining candidates shall be declared to have passed the examination in the Third Division.

(4) A candidate of the degree or condensed course who has failed in not more than two theoretical or practical examinations of two subjects in any of the examinations, shall be declared compartmental candidate provided he has obtained at least 30% in written test and 40% in practicals in the subject in which he has failed. Such candidate shall not be eligible for any of the awards of the Examining Body connected with that examination. Such compartmental candidates shall be permitted to attend the next higher classes, if any, pending the holding of the compartmental examination.

(5) Any candidate who has failed (i) in one subject only in the first or second B.I.M.S. Examination or in the previous condensed Degree course but has secured not less than 30% marks of the aggregate of that subject, or (ii) in Preliminary of the B.I.M.S. but has secured not less than 20% of the aggregate of that subject shall be admitted to the compartmental Examination and if he secures the requisite percentage of marks in that subject he will be declared to have passed the examination. If he fails to pass the compartmental examination, before the next annual examination he shall be required to take the examination again after a further course of regular study in the same class in the subject in which he has failed.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (5), a failed candidate for the preliminary examination of degree course shall be allowed to appear again in the July Examination and also keep term for the first professional examination. A candidate who has failed to avail of two successive chances of appearing in the preliminary examination or who has failed to pass such examination in two successive chances shall not be allowed to take up to the examination again.

(7) For purpose of the first and second professional examination of the degree course a candidate will be given two chances besides the first chance to pass the examination. If a candidate has failed to avail of these three chances successively or has failed to pass any such examination in 3 successive chances his name shall be struck off from the rolls of the institution and he shall not be permitted to take the examination again.

(8) For final Professional Examination of degree and condensed course a candidate shall be considered successful in the subjects in which he passess and shall have to re-appear in the remaining subjects provided that if he fails to complete the full examination in these chances, he shall have to appear in all the subjects of the examination.

(9) After the examiners have completed the examination they shall return the two copies of the Roll sent to them, to the Secretary after entering the marks awarded to the candidates. These copies shall be sent in separate cover, each cover properly sealed. One of the copies shall be used by the Secretary for tabulation of the results in his office and the other copy shall be sent to such person as may be appointed by the Chairman as Tabulator. When both the tabulations are completed the secretary and the Tabulator shall meet in the office of the Examining Body and compare the two tabulations and make corrections where necessary after referring to the Rolls sent by the Examiners and to the answer books.

(10) The results thus tabulated and verified shall be placed before the Examining Body for approval and orders for publication.

(11) The list of the successful candidates shall be sent to the Board and to all affiliated institutions for the information of all concerned and a copy shall also be displayed outside the office of the Examining Body and published in the Gazette.

(12) The Secretary shall also supply the Heads of every Institution with a cross list of candidates sent up from the institution who fail to pass showing the subject or subjects in which they failed.

(13) The degree to the successful candidates in the final B.I.M.S. Examination shall be granted in the form given in Appendix VI.

33. Inspection of Examinations by Inspectors appointed by the Board.—The inspectors of the Board of Ayurvedic and Unani System of Medicines may inspect an examination (written, oral and practical) to ensure that these are being conducted according to the regulations. Such inspection shall be made jointly by two inspectors, together.

34. Principles to be observed by paper setters.—(1) There shall be six questions in the written paper.

(2) The time allowed for one paper is three hours and care should be taken that the questions set may reasonably be answered within the time.

(3) The questions should be spread out over the whole course as far as possible and care should be taken that no question is outside the syllabus as laid down by the Examining Body and that the standard of every question is in accordance with the syllabus.

4. Care should also be taken that no question is ambiguous or vague.

5. The paper setters should write the question legibly on one side of the paper and send or hand over the same to the Secretary in a sealed cover at least 15 days before the date of the examination. The question papers shall be treated as strictly confidential and no copy shall be retained by the paper setters.

35. Principles to be observed by the Examiners.—(1) The Secretary shall despatch the respective answer books to the examiners the same day on which the written examination is held or on the following day together with a copy of the question paper, a copy of the Roll (without name) with a spare copy and a copy of the programme for the oral and practical examination.

(2) On receipt of the answer books the examiner shall himself go through them and appraise the marks for the answer to each question or the part of the question. The marks so awarded shall be written legibly and distinctly from any writing by the candidate in the marking of the relevant answer. The total marks so awarded to any candidate shall then be similarly written on the top page of the answer books and also entered in the appropriate columns of the Roll Number of the candidate.

Where the syllabus provides for the practical note books by the students, such note books certified by the teacher must be produced by the candidates and taken into account by the examiner when awarding marks.

(3) (a) The candidates for oral and practical examination on a particular day are expected to be present at least 10 minutes before the time fixed for the examination. Before the commencement of the examination any supervisor deputed by the Secretary shall take the attendance of the candidates present, and no new candidates shall be allowed except for special reasons to the satisfaction of the supervisor and in no case after 15 minutes from the appointed time.

(b) All the candidates shall be kept in a room and no candidates will be allowed to leave the room till his examination is finished.
